Numb. 1923

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday April 21. to Thursday April 24. 1684.

Leopol, March 31.

THE 18th instant the Tartars made an inroad on the side of Niemirow; but the Cossacks commanded by their new General Mobila, fell upon them, and forced them to retire with considerable loss. It is reported that the Turks are laying three Bridges over the Danube, and that they will fall into Podolia with a great number of men, but it does not deserve much credit. The King of Poland will have an Army of 60000 men in the Field this Campagne.

Warsaw, April 7. They write from the Polish Court, that the King having held a great Council of War, it had been resolved to encrease the Forces of this Kingdom to 60000 men; And to erect two Magazines for them, one at Leopol, and the other at Bialacierkiew. That the King had received very kindly the Deputies from the Cossacks; and having confirmed their new General Mobila, had dismissed them with Presents, and with a sum of Money, sent them by the Pope. That the Cham of Tartary, whom the Turks deposed after the Siege of Vienna, hath sent to the King of Poland, to desire his Protection. That on the 25th of the last Month the Sieur Dukeznicki was dispatched for Venice with the King of Poland's Ratifications of the League against the Turks. And that on the 2 th the Persian Ambassador had an Audience of his Majesty at Jawarow.

Vienna, April 16. The Turks seeming resolved to attempt at last the Relief of Newheusel, which all our Advices say is in great distress, the Imperial Generals in Hungary have taken particular care to secure all the Passages; and several Regiments are marched towards Novigrad, near which place the Turks are drawing together. Colonel Heusler is with some Troops in the Upper-Hungary, and hath forced the Rebels to retire. We continue to work with all possible diligence on our Fortifications, the Bastion of the Court is almost finished, and we have begun to work on the Lebel Bastion, and the Ravelin that lies between those two Bastions. The Count de Vecchy is very busie here in fitting out the Galleys and other small Vessels that are to be employed under his Command on the Danube.

Lintz, April 16. The Elector of Bavaria, who arrived the 14th instant, purposes to stay here some few days only, and then to return to Munick; his Highness has assisted at the Councils of War that have been held since he came. The Rendezvous of the Imperial Army is fixed for the 20th of the next month near Gran; and things are preparing for the beginning the Campagne with some great Action. The last Letters from Newsol gave an account, that the Baron de Mercy and Colonel Heusler have forced the Rebels to quit several Posts which they had taken in Upper-Hungary, and that another Body of Imperialists was marched towards Novigrad. Here are two Deputies from Count Teckeley, and another from the Prince of Transilvania: and the general discourse is, that an accommodation is treating. The Count de Statemberg, Governor of Vienna, parted from hence yesterday. Our advices from Turky continue to assure us, that the Affairs of the Turks are in so ill a posture, that it will be impossible for them to bring any great Army into the Field this Summer.

Linz, April 18. The Emperor holds his Resolution to remove from hence the beginning of the next month, but it is not certain whether it will be to Crembs or Newstadt. Yesterday arrived here the Count d'Esterhasi Palatine of Hungary; he hath had an Audience of the Emperor, and after a short stay here, will return for Hungary to assemble the Militia of that Kingdom. From Newsol we have an account that the Regiments of Heusler, Petrani and Mercy are marched to secure the passages about Newheusel, which place is said to be in so great want of Provisions, that if it be not speedily relieved, the Turks will be forced to surrender it upon any Terms. The Elector of Bavaria will part again from hence the 26th instant, to go to the Rendezvous of his Army, which is appointed to be at Scardingen: It is said that part of his Troops, and those of the Circle of Franconia, will march towards the Rhine.

Berlin, April 22. The Heer de Groot who was sent by the Princes of Lunenburg to this Court, upon the Danish Troops taking Quarters in the Dutchies of Lawenburg and Mecklenburg, is gone home again, somewhat dissatisfied, as we are told, with the Answer he received. His Electoral Highness has, it's said, given Orders for the march of the Troops which he has resolved to send to the assistance of the King of Poland.

Cologne, April 25. Our Electors Troops have Orders to march to Rhinberg, where a Camp is marked out for them, and we are assured that they will make together a Body of 25000 Men. The Bishop of Strasburg parted again from hence on Sunday last for Nuis, from whence he intended to go to Keyserwerdt and Rhinberg. The Electors of Mentz and Trier have made a Neutrality with the French. From Lintz they write, That the Imperialists after an Attack of two days had taken Novigrad in Upper-Hungary, between Gran and Vatzia.

Hamburgh, April 25. Several Brandenburg Regiments have likewise taken their Quarters in the Dutchy of Meckelenburg. The Dukes of Lunenburg raise Men; and it's said they will have an Army of between 20 and 24000 Men; Most of their Cavalry are encamped along the Elbe. The King of Denmark's Troops begin to march towards Holstein; and it's said his Majesty will part from Copenhagen the beginning of the next Month; We do not hear that his Majesty will have any considerable Fleet at Sea this Summer.

Brussels, April 28. Our Letters from Lille, and other places in the French Conquest, tell us, that his most Christian Majesty was expected last night at Cambray, and that his Majesty will be to morrow at Valenciennes, and on Sunday at Conde, from whence he will go the day following to take a review of his Troops in the Plains of Quevrain; after which we may soon expect to hear of Action: The general conjecture is, that Luxemburg will be besieged. At Mons all things are disposing for a vigorous defence;